Shachitari Contractors Limited
Contractors and Transporters

FOREWORD

In pursuing the highest performance and wanting to be a business of first choice, we continually innovate. We conduct our business in an open manner. Our strongest assets are our people and their ability to lead by example. That is why Shachitari Contractors Limited personnel will continue to apply ingenuity to project management.

As a proficient transporter and contractor, we recognise that improvements can be continually made. We also understand the changing nature of the industries and we are continually planning to adapt and benefit from these changes. We embrace ethical behaviour and we are determined to maintain our reputation as a trusted transporter and civil contractor.

As we deliver projects, workplace health and safety is a top priority. The protection of the natural environment is also of the utmost importance. We recognise that consulting with the community about projects is also critical.

Innovation, teamwork, trust, and workplace enjoyment are the defining qualities of our company operations. As the Managing Director of Shachitari Contractors, I want the company and our staff to be recognised for their conduct towards each other, the community and other stakeholders.
